1 Mentor McWhinnie calls for football candidates.

7 School opens !

13 The Girls' Hi-Y started the season with a Tea Dance, which incidentally turned into a Jam Session.

20 Whew ! Today I feel like a Freshman. We've added an eighth period to our school day, and I'm all mixed up.

To-day I feel like a freshman !

21 Our first assembly was the traditional flag-salute instruction, with the Glee Club giving its initial performance.

29 At their yearly assembly, the D. A. R. presented us a Constitution Shrine. There were inspiring speeches by Judge Meekins and Judge Morehead.

October

2 I went to the Conde Nast Printing Press with the Quill and Scroll, and was nearly drowned in printers' ink.

7 Our football team beat Roosevelt High. The game was followed by some very exciting goal-post incidents.

9 "Morgan's at 7:30" appeared on several study hall black-boards today. I wonder what it meant?

13 Despite the goal-post incidents we were given a holiday today.

14 We lost our second football game at New Rochelle. The "Y" opened the season by a swell dance, and I hear there are more to come. Several very interesting articles in the Daily Item about goal-posts. I wonder why all the sudden interest.

17 Squeals of laughter were heard coming from 213 today, as the History Club held its initiation.

20 "Lank" Leonard, a former P. C. student, drew some grand Mickey Finns for us at the joint meeting of the Quill and Scroll, Student Council, and Art classes.

21 Our team beat Gorton to-day.

24 There was quite a riot when several Hi-Y girls were found outside Morgan's scrubbing the sidewalk with a toothbrush. P. S. It was an initiation !

30 Much warbling can be heard from the direction of 213 on Monday nights. It's Mr. Barton's famous choir, I'll bet.

November

3 Several Greenwich High students came to our assembly on a good will tour. It should have been a good luck tour, 'cause they're going to need it.

4 We whipped Greenwich 7-0 today, and then reminded them of it at the "Y" dance.

6 A great victory was chalked up for P. C. today. Our third team in football beat Harrison's scrub team 21-0. Go to it, little boys !

7 The Boys' Hi-Y was pretty pale and weak tonight. I hear Augie Bruns doesn't make spaghetti as the recipe book says he should !

11 Our team ran away with the game against Mamaroneck today. P. S. Nemo was a bad goat when we went to Mamaroneck to tell the folks about it.

14 The Hartsdale Roller Skating rink suffered the loss of several large splinters; but it was the Hi-Y that really suffered.

18 Our traditional football game with White Plains nearly sent the P. C. cheering section into convulsions, but they won 18-14.

21 All here-to-fore rivalry between Mrs. Boothby's second and third period history classes is broken by a debate which proved victorious for the second period.

23 P. S. Don't forget "Franksgiving" day this Thursday !

First row: Patsy Sedotti, Gloria Sammarco, Thomas Norton.
Second row: Anne Frank, Genevieve Rodgers, Lena Rubino, Dorothea Studwell Millie Tartaglia, Henry Liberati.

RAMS IMPROVE ON GRIDIRON

The 1939 football season did not look any too promising with veteran stars such as Sedotti, Tolla, and Kettler being replaced by new comers Palmer, Bruns, Carroll, and Bohrer; yet when the final whistle blew ending the Port Chester-White Plains clash the Rams' record showed four wins and three set-backs.

The McWinnie men led by the superb running, passing, and kicking of their back-field ace, Rocco Marino, opened its season with a bang by defeating Roosevelt 24-0. The following week the boys from the Huguenot city handed the Rams their first defeat with a 7-0 thriller. The Blue and White bounced right back into the win column the following week by beating Gorton 14-6. A fumble kick cost Port Chester a 13-1 defeat at the hands of the Davis High. Then came the game with our arch rivals, Greenwich, and before hundreds of loyal Ram supporters our team came through with a 6-0 victory. A week later Mamaroneck invaded Port Chester, but was no competition to the Blue and White machine, as the final score indicates, Port Chester 14, Mamaroneck 0. At last, the long awaited game with White Plains arrived. Hundreds of loyal supporters went with the Rams. Twice the Rams forged ahead only to be beaten by the slick passing combination of Calvert to Walker. The game ended in a 18-14 victory for the County Seaters.

Outstanding players on the offense were Marino, Palmer, Tamucci, and Swirski. While on the defense Hacklish, Fairbrother, Domaszewski, Messina, and Carroll were the outstanding line holders.

Incidentally, I nearly froze — —

Hockey

The Hockey season for 1939 opened on October 18 with 54 girls participating. Blue and White teams were formed and Marie Shine was chosen Captain with Adelle Wozniak as Assistant Captain.

Throughout the season five games were played. The Blues emerged victorious by the score 4-1. Practices continued until November twenty-first, when the honor team was chosen. Those on the honor team were: Adelle Wozniak, Patricia Drummond, Nagia Chiger, Berit Kolding, Yrsa Kolding, Jane Larson, Lillian Johnson, Florence Glenen, Marie Shine, Marie Portanova, and Rosanna Christiano.

Archery

Archery proved to be a popular sport throughout the year. Last fall about thirty girls participated, including both beginning and advanced archers. Each day possible these girls practiced so that by the end of the season there was little difference between the scores of the beginning and advanced groups. Seven girls earned their "A" in archery and also twenty-five points towards a Girls' Athletic Association letter. This means that these girls have spent at least eight hours shooting. Again this spring many girls signed up for archery. At the close of the season an archery contest was staged. This contest was under the supervision of the archery leader, Sonia Wein, and the assistant leader, Nancy Slater.

MORE LINES FROM MY DIARY

December

4 Tonight brought forth the sparkling candles and formal addresses in the Little Theatre, as the Quill and Scroll held their impressive initiation.

8 The rug-cutters and jivers had an elegant jam session at the G. A. A. Jitterbug Dance today. Did I see Funsie Sedotti ordering one Dixie Cup and two spoons to quench his partner's appetite? (and his own, too!)

8 Our newly organized basketball team launched a successful raid on Peekskill to the tune of 35-31.

15 At assembly this morning I was carried off to lofty heights by the music of the Glee Club in the sample of the forth-coming concert.

15 Our hopes were nearly shattered when Greenwich beat our team 41-32 tonight.

16 Was it the "community tummy-ache" that affected our boys, or the spaghetti that Augie Bruns and the rest of the Hi-Y boys made last night?

19 The auditorium resounded with applause tonight when the Glee Club and the Band gave its annual concert.

20 And so, we put away our books for a vacation today. Merry Christmas, all !

January 1940

5 We vanquished our rivals White Plains in a thrilling game with an even more exciting score of 29-28.

8 Congratulations to our Senior Class officers elected today, and the best of luck.

9 Imagine his surprise when one of the male history students walked into Mrs. Boothby's Regents review class—for girls only !

10 And still our basketball team rides the waves of victory by conquering Pleasantville and Roosevelt.

19 But today we bowed to Davis.

22 Beware ! Regents week has begun and it's too late for cramming now.

29 Now for the bad news and the horse-shoes. We wonder if "Izzy" Katz's good luck cannon brought results.

30 Another thrilling game was played in our gym but we lost a hard fought battle to New Rochelle.

30 Of all things ! Is Augie Bruns looking for a wife, or does Nancy Slater plan to be a seamstress? I noticed her sewing a button on Augie's jacket this afternoon !

February

2 We avenged our defeat by the Greenwich basketball team to the tune of 33 to 26.

6 But we lost to Gorton !

9 The Blue Key Band organization really "went to town" in a Swing assembly this morning.

9 Our rivals, White Plains, invaded the gym tonight and won a hard-fought battle, 29-28.

14 Will you be my Valentine?

15 Thoughts of the "good old summer time" have been banished, and even school was closed when Old Man Winter had his fling.

16 The basketball team broke its losing streak by defeating A. B. Davis.

17 Our "young men about town" had a real treat tonight. They were asked to dance, given refreshments, and even shown pictures of themselves by the Delta Hi-Y Chapter at a Leap Year dance.

20 "Turks" Palmer made history for P. C. H. S. today when he scored 37 points against Mamaroneck.

22 Many were the duckings given and received in the Tarrytown pool when the Hi-Y attended the Westchester Rally.

23 Off again, on again ! We lost to New Rochelle.

26 I didn't know that there were so many photographic subjects in P. C. H. S. The class of 1940 should be on its way to Hollywood soon, judging from the proofs passed around !

Once a month I attend the Student Council meeting

Port Chester High School Band

In a world filled with war and international strife,
There is need for music in every person's life.
The band members try to fulfill this need
With their efforts on the trombone, tom-tom, and reed.

The following are the officers of the band:

Drum Major—Leslie Hoffman
Librarian—Patricia Higgins
President—William Faffley
Secretary-Manager—Robert Mertz
Student Leader—William Faffley
Equipment Manager—John Buzzeo
Assistant Manager—Nano Pallotti

The band marched in the Memorial Day and Armistice Day parades, gave concerts at the World's Fair and the High Schol commencement exercises, and the seventh annual series of concerts at Lyon Park. The band played for all of the seven football games last fall. In co-operation with the Chorus it presented a Christmas concert before the holidays. The band was honored in becoming one of the first members of the "Sousa Juniors," playing at the Sousa Memorial Concert at White Plains on January 21, 1940.

On April 12, the band played host to hundreds of other high school musicians at the sectional contest held in our school. This year it also played at the Westchester Band Day, in White Plains, and the World's Fair.

The band climaxed a successful year of competition with ratings of I, I- and II in the Sectional, State, and National 1939 Music Contests.

Paris in the spring, Marseille by the sea;
Echoes of old Versailles, and tales of Brittany;
The joy and savoire-faire of life in la belle France,
Blend these to form the program of a French Club seance.

APPARATUS CLUB

Mr. Frank Ladore

William Bova, Salvatore Carpentieri, Co-captains

Simon Mayerhofer, Pianist

Angelo Sciandra, Milton Levine, Managers

As football faded away in Port Chester High School history, Coach Frank A. Ladore made preparations for his 1940 Apparatus Club. Four veterans returned to show their skills. Coach LaDore made up his team from young sophomores who were eager to show what talent they possessed. The boys, after a month of continuous practice, made their first appearance for the 1940 season at Park Avenue School, where they met the applause of the younger boys, who, some day, may be doing chin-stands, parallel-work, buck routines, and wand drills.

Other performances staged by this club were at Edison, Roosevelt, Junior High and Senior High Schools. The latter performance was given in our auditorium and was appreciated by our students.

Those who helped Coach LaDore to make this year's team a success were General Manager, Angelo Sciandra, and Manager, "Milt" Levine.

I was thrilled when I saw what acrobats
they really were

MARSHALL CLUB

Mr. Frank Kull
Herman Wein, President
Walter Brown, Vice-president
Ruby Armstrong, Secretary
Joseph Morabito, Treasurer

The marshalls work hard at patrolling our halls
Keeping them free from whistles, yells, and cat-calls.
It's their duty to find out just who belongs where,
To inspect all passes, and assure safe arrival there.

THRIFT COUNCIL

Mr. Robert Lasher
Lucy LaRusso, President
Doris Crossett, Vice-president
Florence Grippo, Secretary-Treasurer

A worthy Scotch virtue is recognized in P. C. High;
Students really save their money, at least they try.
The cashiers of each section room keep banking records clear,
And so the savings grow, adding interest year by year.

SCHOLASTIC P. C.

Our students who excel scholastically
Aspire to the coveted Scholastic P. C.
The leaders in class, and out of class, too,
Place their faith in the hundred-point letter of blue.

HISTORY

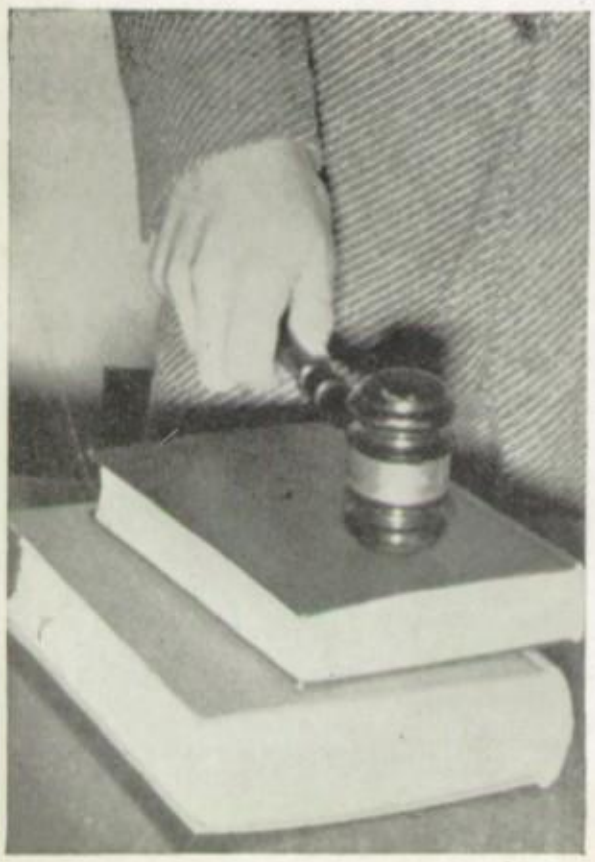
Odd facts and dates, the names of States,
The presidents, all acts and laws;
The old, the new, as Time relates
Them to either peace or wars
Are found in history.



DEBATING CLUB

Miss Florence Curtis
Perry Jacobs, President
Mary Russell, Vice-president
Wilma Merritt, Secretary
John McCann, Treasurer

To give speeches in true Ciceronian style
Is a goal toward which students strive;
Debating Club practice is really worth-while
For it keeps forensic tradition alive.

The basketball season for 1939-1940 started with thirty-six girls signing up. Practice games were started and continued for the first few weeks of the season. After the Christmas holiday class teams of the Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores were formed. Adelle Wozniak was elected Captain of basketball with Marie Portanova as her assistant. An inter-class tournament was then played from which the Seniors emerged victorious by winning three games out of four. The sophomores were the runners-up having won two out of four games. At the climax of the tournament, the honor team was chosen. It consisted of Nagia Chiger, Adelle Wozniak, Lillian Johnson, Jane Larson, Marie Portanova, and Marie Shine.

The table tennis practices for the first part of the 1940 season started in January with twenty girls participating. Gloria Leibert was chosen as table tennis head, with Pearl Leibert as her assistant. After two weeks of practice, tournaments were started. These continued for three weeks. The winner in the singles tournament was Pearl Leibert. The winners in the doubles tournament were Ann Frank and Lena Rubino. This tournament, however, did not conclude the season, for another session of table tennis was started.

BADMINTON

The spring season of badminton was opened with thirty girls taking part. Practice was held for three weeks and then the first tournament of the season was held. In the finals of this, Julia Zack defeated Marie Shine for the championship. Semi-finalists also included Sonia Wein and Rita Marino. Florence Glennen was selected as the head of badminton for the 1939-1940 season, with Nagia Chiger as assistant. This tournament climaxed the first half of the badminton season. The second half of the season was started in April and was concluded with a second tournament.

Sol Schecter's men opened the 1939 to 1940 Basketball season, after a month of hard practice, with a good start by defeating a fast but green Peekskill five 35-31. A week later the Rams suffered their first set back of the season when they fell to the mercy of a powerful Greenwich five on the Cardinal court.

The Rams again entered the win column after Christmas vacation by defeating White Plains for the first time in seven years in a thrilling 29-28 battle. Pleasantville proved to be no match for the Rams as they took it on the chin 44-33.

On January 12, 1940, the Blue and White quintet came back to league warfare defeating Roosevelt 32-24. Davis proved to be too much, for our boys fell to the tune of 31-22. At Mamaroneck, in a fast, but uninteresting game, our forces emerged victorious, 50-26.

With Lady Luck turned away from the Schecter men, they started to lose, when New Rochelle invaded Port Chester and gave the fans something to talk about after the 35-33 defeat which they handed to us.

Even if they aren't Champs,
I like them
best of all

Then Greenwich, with one victory already under their belts, came to town only to be greeted with a 33-26 defeat.

One point stood in the way of Port Chester's chances of beating Gorton as they fell at the short end of a 29-28 score. Then came the long awaited contest, the return game with the Tigers from White Plains, and for the third time in a week the Blue and White fell short to the tune of 25-23.

Embittered by their losses, the Blue and White took it out on Roosevelt in a 43-22 trimming. With full speed ahead, the Ram machine piled up the record score of the season, 66 points against 41 for the boys from Mamaroneck. At New Rochelle, the machine was stopped as the boys from the Queen City handed us a second defeat 34-28. We finally ended the season as we started it by defeating Gorton 36-33. Port Chester High School basketball team ended in third place in the W. I. A. A. League by winning seven games and by losing five games.

FINAL LINES FROM MY DIARY

March

1 As an advent to spring, we saw a thrilling baseball movie in assembly.
4 Amid cracking trees and sparkling ice a courageous ten per cent attended school.
5 And still no school !
8 An American Legion assembly with a special song in honor of our principal's birthday.
11 The day for all eager Thespians to shine. Senior Play try-outs.
14 We had to stay after school today—but to see a movie—"Dodge City." Tonight, the basketball team revenged their defeat by White Plains in a non-league game at the "Y."
20 In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns — was that snow shovelling I saw this morning?
21 The gym team heralded the coming Easter vacation with a thrilling demonstration in to-day's assembly.

April

1 Many a trick was played—including the sugar put in the salt shakers in the third period cooking class.
2 The French Club members entertained M. Orbinger, professor at N. Y. U. and were astonished at the French he used.
3 Adelle Wozniak, representing P. C. H. S., won second prize in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. Say, Adelle, we hear the prize was five dollars !
8 Jitterbugs certainly went to town at the Home Economics Club Dance today.
12 The Band and Glee Club proved to be very charming hosts, as well as musicians, at the Eastern Sectional Contests.
15 Yes, spring has come ! The track and diamond are fairly alive with eager athletes, and even the girls have braved the cool air to appear on their field. (Which proves it.)
17 Spring fever leaves its effect on many Seniors.
22 There's an odd look around the school today. Could it be from the Food Sale the girls' Hi-Y had Saturday?
26 Most popular sport of the season—"looping."

May

7 A tip to the boys—Good Humors can be a great aid to your glamour !
16 A group of Seniors heard conferring in anticipation of graduation. Of all things !
17 The Senior play was a great success.
22 Valedictorian and Salutatorian seen writing their speeches.
24 Class Day left every senior with a fond and happy memory of their school days.

June

1 Coming down the last mile.
5 Much anxious talk heard about the Prom.
11 First gentle reminder about the approaching Regents became the subject of a sit-down strike.
17 Too late now for prayers ! Regents' week has begun.
25 And so our school career has ended—we did our very best.

SOPHOMORE DIARY

January, 1937. Today, I really saw most of those who will be my classmates for the next half dozen years, for my class entered Junior High School. Before this we have been separated among the different public schools of the village. Part of our class has already been here in the Junior High School for half a year. The school is very strange; the routine is novel. I hope I can become accustomed to it.

February, 1937. I am becoming accustomed to the routine. We are really settling down to work this month. Passing from one class to another does not seem so strange as it once did. As a matter of fact, it is beginning to be a welcome event.

June, 1937. There isn't much chance of our class securing many parts in the Centennial production. However, we are more concerned in passing our first Junior High School final exams. As the result of them, most of us will be 8 B's next term.

September, 1937. The summer has gone quickly and here we are back in school ! I feel like a regular Junior High School student now. No longer a seventh-grader, I am finding some time to engage in school activities.

January, 1938. More exams ! We are now 8 A's. After a year in Junior High School we are beginning to look forward to the day when we may enter Senior High School.

April, 1938. We are planning our courses for next term. What we do now may influence our entire future. So we can't be too careful.

June, 1938. Well, I passed ! I can now call myself a full-fledged ninth-grader. Some of my class can look back on sizable parts in "Starlight, Starbright," the musical fantasy.

September, 1938. New teachers, new principal; lots of changes in the old school. Now that I'm in 9 B I feel like an aristocrat.

January, 1939. Exams took a new turn. They were a little more serious than in previous years. We're big-shots now, 9 A's; the cream of the Junior High School ! We're all waiting for the eventful day when we shall enter Senior High.

June, 1939. I passed my exams, so Senior High, here I come. The summer vacation can't come to an end too soon for me.

September, 1939. The day has arrived ! My surroundings are so strange, so full of excitement, they frighten me.

October, 1939. I didn't get so much individual attention up here as I did in Junior High. I like that arrangement of taking a period out of the day each Friday for an assembly. The assemblies are swell, and I don't mind getting out of a period of work.

November, 1939. Football season is here, and I'm rooting for old P. C. with a vim. Several of my classmates are on the second and third teams, and one is on the varsity.

December, 1939. Some of my friends are on the honor list, and others, including myself, are on the merit list. I first appeared in public as a member of the Glee Club this month in the Christmas Concert. Many of my classmates took part in the concert as members of the Glee Club or Band.

January, 1940. My first taste of Senior High exams is still fresh in my mouth. I shudder when I think of the mark I received in the math exam. Oh well, we can't all be geniuses ! I'll work hard for my Regents exam in June.

JUNIOR STORY

Dear Diary,

To-day, as it was raining, Charles Slagle and Maurice Burnell dropped in to see what I was doing. I happened to be reading, but since three people can't read the same book, we soon fell to discussing school life.

Charles happened to have a picture of our class when it was in kindergarten. Not all of the bright and shining pupils are in school now. Louis Guernsey, next to maestro Bill Faffley, has moved to French Algiers. We were unable to discover what has happened to some of the class. When this most interesting story was at its height, Nancy Slater rang the door bell. When she discovered we were talking about our younger days in school, with her usual social grace, she contributed much to the conversation. She remembered that the members of the class built a flower shop for the year's project in 1928. At Christmas time the class presented a play, "The Brownies Making Toys." The head of the kindergarten department of Maryland University attended this presentation. We must have been good actors ! Perhaps, however, she just wanted to see the new school building, as our class was the first class in the Park Avenue building. At a May Day celebration we gave a Maypole dance. The band entertained with a program of Japanese music at the end of the year. That was our farewell to kindergarten.

As good fortune sometimes has it, Maurice was carrying a picture taken of a few ambitious fourth-graders—the class of '41. One of the boys in the picture, Stanley Wooley, has acquired fame and fortune with his trained animals which he rents out for various purposes. Nancy told us that shortly after this picture was taken, she grew pig-tails. Mary Russell, upon seeing a rival, cut her pig-tails, just to be different.

In order to give our conversation a more modern twist, Maurice said that our class was the first Sophomore group to gain recognition in the Peningian. We even had our own celebrities. The class seems to be "a first" all the way through school.

The Juniors do not seem to do much in their Junior year, but we all look forward to the Senior Prom, Class Day, Graduation, and all the other thrills of Seniority.
